

Mercoledì 17 Febbraio alle 15:56, aggiornato mercoledì 17 febbraio alle 16:03

CAGLIARI

Sexual violence at Poetto: sentenced to 8 years

According to the accused, it was a consenting relationship

Il tribunale di Cagliari (Archivio L'Unione Sarda)

Eight years for the sexual violence committed at Poetto on 9 July 2017. This is the sentence imposed by the judges of the first criminal section on 25-year-old Riccardo Maccioni, who will also pay a provisional fee of 50 thousand euros in favor of the victim, the civil party in the trial with the lawyer Valeria Aresti. The appeal of the defender Fernando Vignes has been discounted.

The two had met in a disco on the sea and after a chat they had decided to head to a bathhouse on the beach. But the simple walk, so the girl had argued in front of the carabinieri, had resulted in aggression and rape. Reconstruction rejected by Maccioni, who has always maintained it was a consenting relationship.